- 10:00 Drevené chrámy v Ruskej Bystrej a Inovci / Wooden churches in Ruská Bystra and Inovce
- North-eastern Slovakia is known for its hills, dense forests and Orthodox wooden churches. „Tserkvas“ in Ruská Bystra and Inovce, which were built in the 18th century at the dominant places, have got unconventionally arranged iconostases. Moreover, the first mentioned church is registered in UNESCO World Heritage List. A charming atmosphere is also typical for the surroundings...
- Hrádok v obci Podhorod' / Castle in Podhorod' village
- First of all you can notice only a tiny hill with an old quarry and a special height sign. After a slight climb to its top there appear the ruins of the easternmost situated castle, namely castle, on the Slovak territory. What might interest you are the remains of a fairly massive residential tower and the castle courtyard itself, once there have been accidentally discovered ancient Roman coins. On the contrary to this treasure problematic to discover beautiful view is sure...
- Jazierko pri Beňatine / Beňatina small lake
- Charming Plitvice lakes in Slovakia? Of course, it is possible... Near the Schengen Slovak-Ukrainian state border. Turquoise water in this old flooded quarry with breathtaking rocky scenery at first sight definitely „will take away the breath“ of many visitors. And although you can swim and dive on your own responsibility, you might surely find a whale... Just peer carefully...
